Sheryl St. Germain
Reading Q&A

LET IT BE A DARK ROUX
New and Selected Poems
Sheryl St. Germain

THE MAKING OF AN UNRULY WOMAN
Swamp Songs
Sheryl St. Germain
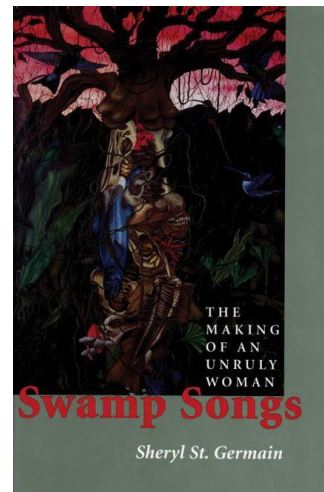

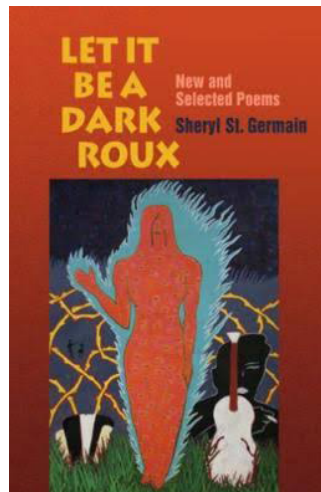

She has taught creative writing at UL and five other universities. She directs the MFA program in Creative Writing at Chatham University, is the co-founder and director of the Words Without Walls Program, and founded the Maenad Fellowship Program. Her work has received many awards, including two NEA Fellowships, an NEH Fellowship, the Dobie-Paisano Fellowship, the Ki Davis Award from the Aspen Writers Foundation, and the William Faulkner Award.

November 8th 7PM

Achilles Print Studio
321 Oil Center Dr.
Lafayette, LA 70503

Made possible with the support of Friends of the Humanities